Fees do not include PTO dues.

Prolonged Tuition Delinquency
Prolonged tuition delinquency is extremely disruptive to the operation of our school. We ask our community to please help us by making a conscientious effort to make timely tuition payments. When despite our best efforts to contact and work with a family, parents fail to meet tuition obligations then, in addition to any other actions available to it, the Academy reserves the right to:

1. Interrupt class attendance by family members until the balance is fully paid or a payment plan is agreed with the Academy.
2. Transfer the case over to a collection agency. The account will continue to be in collection for the full amount.
3. Withhold report cards from students and diplomas from graduating students.
4. Not accept the family's registration for the following year.

I acknowledge that I (and my spouse where applicable) have read and understand the above.
